Tennis Instructional Services provided by independent business operator Mark Fairchilds and Independent Tennis Professionals at Laguna Creek Sports Club for member and community clients

2021 Summer Tennis Camps delivers the highest quality, modern methods of instruction, featuring the regions most talented Independent Tennis Professionals.

The Tennis Camps focus each and every session on the individual development of all our participants. The groups are ideal for players of all ages and skill levels, from children to adults as well as competitive high school players and tournament veterans.

Group participants can expect only the finest in individual and group instruction as the Independent Tennis Professionals cater the lessons and programs to help maximize the development of each player - from basic fundamentals and stroke work to advanced footwork and on-court strategy.

Tennis Instructional Services will be provided by independent business operator Mark Fairchilds and a incredible team of Independent Tennis Professionals, all of whom boast years of experience learning the art of effective tennis instruction.

The Tennis Camps maximize player exposure to a wealth of tennis knowledge, by employing a specific method to regulate class size per instructor, ensuring that all players receive the benefits of individual attention, with the encouragement of a small group setting.

Camp Descriptions

Junior Skills Camp

Designed to teach different types of skills needed to have consistent success on the court.

Adult Tennis Camp

These camps allow adult players to develop their games in a camp environment - always a great time!

Commando Camp

Our most popular camp - players develop their on-court "weapons" and have a blast doing it!
